A tolerable overview of ecclesiology from a variety of different perspectives though lacking in any depth regarding important issues. This is better than seminary, better than journals, better than ten big books a year. Jesus sent His disciples on a mission.

We believe that God has designed His Church to be governed by a Theocracy. Roman Catholicism, the evangelical churches, in particular, are at the forefront seeking to influence government and business with the gospel. We are Spirit indwelt communities and we must live out our birthright in the power of the Spirit. God There is one and only one living and true God.

One element of the larger question was framed as such: Is the essential nature of the church? It pointed out that church theology lacked social analysis and that the analysis of apartheid that underpins its theology is simply inadequate. The Reformation The period of the Reformation saw the rise of mercantilism and then industrial capitalism.
