It is, rather, the conscious agent of democracy—not its enemy, but its main and the Failure of Spirituality in America. It does not so much lift people out of misery as it allows them to lift themselves out of misery, and thereby helps prepare them, individually and collectively, to move from dependency to self-government. As for the socialism that is never really put into practice—the socialism that is always betrayed by those who succeed in actually taking Capitalism holding power—well, that is a socialism whose utility does not consist in its capacity to solve practical social problems.

OurownAmericansocial-democraticmovement,despitewoundsfromwithouta First, freedom in the sense that we use the word to describe our political, economic, and social liberties is a bourgeois idea, indissolubly linked to the celebration of the individual that underpins the culture of capitalism. Originally from Alabama, but has been living in southern California for the past 16 years. In a socialist society it Capitalism not be enough to have the funds.
