This isn't to say those organizations, or those working with them, aren't doing good work, or are behaving in a cynical manner my own, then widowed, grandfather met his second wife whilst working for MSF but rather that there are certain practices expected in terms of financial reporting, and internal controls relating to transparent 'best practice', which are technically 'optional', but which if not adopted, would probably lead to a negative determination in terms of collaboration with the US DoD. Not to oversimplify the trauma but simply to state facts, things went on .
