We have a take two review below from Drake Morgan. This is a must have for any serious horror reader or library.

WhichonesdidImiss? This book highlights some of the talented authors out there and what they write. While some of the stories weren't the type of thing I would normally read they were all thought provoking and highly imaginative.

ThisTimeNextYear.As you might have noticed, five of the six stories in this collection were written by Hannu Kesola who also happens to be a celebrated writer and graphic artist of heavy metal work from Finland. I highly recommend this collection for any horror fan, and especially for those who appreciate subtle storytelling that packs a literary punch.
