To me that is wha This was not a book that I would normally pick to read but it was chosen by my book club. It gave me perspective on a job and a life style that I knew nothing . Sheblogsaboutbooksatbooksunderskin.Arewemakingtreefarmstoproducen

Or that the world record for planting trees is held by a Saskatchewan planter who pounded in 15, red pine seedlings in a single day. Besides giving you material, has it influenced your writing or the way you write?

CurrentIssueIssue53SummerHonouringthestruggles,joys,andradicalhis thoroughly Canadian story Eating Dirt is not out of place alongside other classic memoirs of the bush by Susanna Moodie or Farley Mowat. Yet as the book continued I found myself drowning in the information and details.
