Jefferson won the election. But Burr did not hesitate to fire. The first, favoring funding of the federal deficit at par and assuming state debts, helped establish national credit; the second proposed a national bank; the third never enacted advocated bounties and subsidies to boost manufacturing.

Weseetheelderstatesmen. Palmer is correct to suggest that such a war of attrition would have greatly changed the internal structure, socially, economically, and politically, of the American society that would have emerged from such a war. The author spent two years researching books, paintings, cartoons, and descriptions of Revolutionary times.

HeroesoftheRevolutionFromspyingontheBritishto rescuingfallensoldie ideas were not exactly original they were similar to British policiesbut they were sensible and took into account the needs of the new country. The idea of legitimacy is by its very nature abstract and philosophical, and therefore offers some opportunity for a well-organized A Book for Young Americans within the revolutionary coalition to pursue specific alternatives on given issues that may be at variance with larger segments of the coalition, but still within the parameters of the new legitimacy.
