The very name of Carnac is significant; and in two continents, Africa and Europe--to follow the certain evidence of archaeology alone The Fairy-Faith in Celtic Countries seem to have been no greater centres for ancient religion than Karnak in Egypt and Carnac in Brittany. The Witches' God. Plus the edition I have is part of the Library of the Mystic Arts and has an intro by Terence McKenna, the late psychonaut, who elsewhere had paralleled fairies and the little gibbering beings he encountered after taking DMT.

The book concludes with a remarkably rational case for the reality of fairyli
