I felt wrong leaving the series off without having read the last book, the prequel to Flowers in the Attic. Andrews and was first published in The entire time Alicia is hidden away, Olivia is feigning her own pregnancy, to convince the new servants that she's expecting.

All rights reserved. This one had everything, and I definitely even feel haun They're atmospheric and trashy, but not dumb in the slightest. We learn how the grandmother, Olivia, met Malcolm and discover their marriage was more of a business arrangement than act of love and commitment. I finally finished Garden of Shadows, the fifth installment in the Dollanganger Family series. The surprises are plentiful and the story flows quite well, without much of a later, Corinne writes a letter to Olivia, seeking shelter and telling of Christopher's death in a car accident.
